

Garage Sale Permit

No person shall have a garage or yard sale within the city limits of the City of Rosebud without first obtaining a permit therefor.

Any person desiring to have a garage or yard sale shall make an application in the city hall office. The application shall state the name of the person having the sale. A copy of the permit shall be posted in a conspicuous place during the sale and at the place where it is being held. The city office shall collect a permit fee of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars.

The sale of tangible personal property at retail must be conducted by the property owner who does not hold himself out as engaging in or habitually engaging in selling such tangible personal property at retail.

The owner or occupant of such residential property wishing to conduct a garage or yard sale shall be limited to two (2) permits per calendar year, each of said permits to cover a period not to exceed three (3) days.

The tangible personal property shall be sold only on the premises of the owner or lessee of the property where the sale is conducted. Such owner or lessee must be the legal owner of the tangible personal property at the time of the sale.

No merchandise acquired solely for resale shall be sold.

I _____, acknowledge that I have read and agree to the terms set out before me in the City ordinance.
